

Family Support Division administers the following qualifying programs.

MO HealthNet (f/k/a Medicaid)

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) known as Food Stamps in MO

Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)

Individuals applying for these programs are notified of eligibility/ineligibility using the following forms:

FA-151 Food Stamp Benefit Summary

FA-150 Claimant Action Notice

FA-251 Temporary Assistance Budget Summary

FA-450 Medicaid Action Notice

FA-460 Adult MO HealthNet Benefit Notice

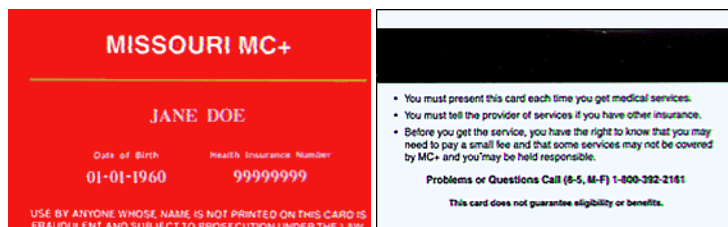

Benefit Cards

MO HealthNet

MO HealthNet currently uses a plastic identification card that is issued to each eligible individual. The MO HealthNet ID card is white. It contains the MO HealthNet logo in the upper right corner of the card and states “MO HealthNet Department of Social Services” in the upper left corner. The lower portion of the face contains the participant's name, date of birth and MO HealthNet ID number. The reverse side of the card contains basic information and a participant hotline number. The plastic ID card also contains a magnetic strip. Plastic ID cards do not show eligibility dates.

The other MO HealthNet card is red and contains the 8 digit MO HealthNet ID number, the eligible individual's name and date of birth. Plastic ID cards do not show eligibility dates.

Some individuals are enrolled in MO HealthNet Managed Care health plans. These plans may also issue their own individual health plan ID cards. The managed care providers in Missouri are below;

HealthCare USA

Home State Health Plan

Missouri Care

Family Support Division

Lifeline Qualifying Programs

A. R. Briguglio-Mays, PDS

July 2, 2012

Food Stamp and TANF

Missouri Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) is the method by which households receive and use Food Stamp benefits. TANF benefits are received can also be received via direct deposit to a personal bank account instead of using the EBT card. EBT cards do not show eligibility dates.

Below are some helpful links to other programs NOT administered by FSD.

Low-Income Home Energy Assistance (LIHEAP) is a program administered by local community action agencies that varies throughout the state. The link below contains the list of local agencies.

<http://www.dss.mo.gov/fsd/eassist/pdf/hcapp.pdf>

Federal Public Housing Assistance (Section 8) link below contains the list of local agencies

<http://www.hud.gov/offices/pih/pha/contacts/states/mo.cfm>

National School Free Lunch Program link below contains sample eligibility notification.

<http://www.fns.usda.gov/cnd/FRP/frp.process.htm>