ORDER GRANTING STAFF’S MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT AND AUTHORITY TO SEEK PENALTIES

Issue Date: June 12, 2019

Effective Date: July 12, 2019

INTRODUCTION

Default

1. On March 21, 2019, the Staff of the Missouri Public Service Commission (“Staff”) filed a Complaint against Respondent, Netwolves Network Services, LLC (the “Company”), for failing to file a 2017 Annual Report. On March 25, 2019, the Missouri Public Service Commission (“Commission”) issued its Notice of Contested Case and Order Directing Filing, ordering the Company to file an answer to the Complaint no later than April 24, 2019. On May 28, 2019, Staff filed a Motion for Default Judgment and Authority to Seek Penalties (“Motion for Default”). Staff’s Motion for Default states that the Company has filed no Answer in this matter.

2. Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-2.070(9) provides: “The respondent shall file an answer to the complaint within the time provided. All grounds of defense, both of law and of fact shall be raised in the answer.” Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-2.070(10), states:

“If the respondent in a complaint case fails to file a timely answer, the complainant’s averments may be deemed admitted and an order granting default entered. The respondent has seven (7) days from the issue date of the order granting default to file a motion to set aside the order of default and extend the filing date of the answer. The commission may grant the motion to set aside the order of default and grant the respondent additional time to answer if it finds good cause.”

3. The Respondent was served on March 28 and March 29, 2019.<sup>1</sup> The Company has filed no Answer to the Complaint. Therefore, the Commission will grant Staff’s Motion, deem all the Complaint’s allegations admitted, and make further findings as follows.

Subject Matter Jurisdiction

4. Section 386.390.1, RSMO authorizes the Commission to entertain a complaint “setting forth any act or thing done or omitted to be done by any. . .public utility. . . in violation, or claimed to be in violation, of any provision of law, or of any rule, or order or decision of the commission.”

5. Section 386.600, RSMO provides:

“[A]n action to recover a penalty. . .under this chapter or to enforce the powers of the commission under this or any other law may be brought in any circuit court in this state in the name of the state of Missouri and shall be commenced and prosecuted to final judgment by the general counsel to the commission.”

E-8, Tampa FL 33634 on March 29, 2019.

Cause of Action
Annual Reports

6. A company that provides “telecommunications services” to the public for gain as defined by Section 386.020(54), RSMO, is a “public utility” as defined by Section 386.020 (43), RSMO.

7. Section 392.210 (1), RSMO requires every telecommunications company to file an annual report.

8. Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-28.012 (1)(A) provides in pertinent part:

Any company registered to provide IVoIP service or with a certificate of service authority to provide nonswitched local, basic local, or interexchange telecommunications service shall file an annual report.

9. Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-28.012(1)(C) states that the deadline for a company to submit a completed annual report is April 15.

FINDINGS OF FACT

10. Respondent is a company that provides “telecommunications services” to the public for gain as defined by Section 386.020(54), RSMO, and is a “public utility” as defined by Section 386.020 (43), RSMO.

11. The Company’s 2017 Annual Report was due on April 15, 2018. The Company neither filed the required report nor requested an extension of the due date.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

12. As a company that provides “telecommunications services to the public” per Section 386.020(54), RSMO, and a “public utility” per Section 386.020(43), RSMO, the Company is subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission pursuant to Section 386.250 (2), RSMO.

13. As a “telecommunications company,” the Company is subject to the annual reports requirements of Section 392.210(1), RSMO, Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-28.012 (1)(A), and Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-28.012(1)(C).

14. The Company’s failure to file its 2017 Annual Report is a violation of Section 392.210(1), RSMO and Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-28.012(1)(A) and (C).

15. The Company has been in violation of Section 392.210(1), RSMO and Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-28.012(1)(A) and (C), continuously each and every day from April 15, 2018, through the day of this Order.

DECISION

It is the decision of the Commission that the Company’s failure to file its 2017 Annual Report places the Company in violation of Section 392.210(1), RSMO and Commission Rule 4 CSR 240-28.012(1)(A) and (C). It is the further decision of the Commission that the Company has been in violation of the said statute and rules continuously each and every day from April 15, 2018, through the date of this Order. Section 386.600, RSMO, authorizes an action in any circuit court in this state in the name of the state of Missouri to recover a penalty or forfeiture or to enforce the powers of the Commission. Such an action will be prosecuted by the General Counsel of the Commission. The Commission will direct its Office of General Counsel to seek all such penalties, remedies and relief as may be allowed by law in the appropriate Circuit Court of Missouri.

By rule,<sup>2</sup> the Company has seven days from the issue date of this order to file a motion to set aside this order of default. Because this order has a thirty-day effective date of July 12, the Company has until July 11 to request rehearing of this order.<sup>3</sup>

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. The Staff's Motion for Default Judgment and for Authority to Seek Penalties is granted.
2. A default judgment is entered against Netwolves Network Services, LLC.
3. The facts alleged in Staff's Complaint are found to be established.
4. The Commission's General Counsel is authorized to bring an action in the Circuit Court of its choosing seeking all such penalties, remedies and relief against Netwolves Network Services, LLC, as may be allowed by law.
5. Netwolves Network Services, LLC, is allowed until June 19, 2019, to move to set aside this order of default.
6. This order shall be effective on July 12, 2019.
