

Local Access and Transport Area (LATA)

LATAs define geographical areas between and within which various telephone carriers may provide local and/or long-distance services according to specific rule

