

Relay Missouri

Relay Missouri is a telecommunications relay service providing full telephone accessibility to people who are deaf, hard-of-hearing or speech disabled. 7-1-1 is the statewide telephone relay number that connects standard (voice) telephone users with deaf, hard-of-hearing or speech disabled individuals. The Public Service Commission oversees the administration of Relay Missouri, which was enacted through a 1990 Missouri law. You can get more information about Relay Missouri by calling 711 or 1-800-676-3777.

You May Be Eligible for Adaptive Equipment

The Missouri Assistive Technology Council is responsible for distribution of adaptive telephone equipment needed by Missourians with disabilities. To be eligible for the equipment, a person must:

- be a Missouri resident and have telephone service in their home;
- have a certified disability that prevents them from accessing or effectively using basic telephone services with standard telephone equipment.

*Certain income limits may apply.

Please contact the Missouri Assistive Technology Council at (816) 655-6700 (voice) or (816) 655-6711 (TTY); or at Missouri Assistive Technology's website for more information.

For More Information

The Missouri Public Service Commission (PSC) regulates investor-owned water, sewer, natural gas, electric and steam utilities. The PSC also has limited jurisdiction over telecommunications providers in Missouri. The PSC works to ensure Missouri citizens receive safe, reliable and reasonably priced utility services. If you have an inquiry, billing question or service-related issue that your utility provider cannot answer, please call the PSC at 1-800-392-4211 or visit our website at psc.mo.gov.
